Mark

No maximum size for the logo but The master logo is to only be used in the approved colors. The color of the background should complement the logo determining which logo should be used on the background.

Minimum size no smaller than three-quarters of an inch wide:

Logo Integrity and Clear space

Clear space is the area around the logo. This area should be clear of any graphics or typography. This space also includes the edges of magazines and newspapers.

Use the height of the tail to determine the clear space needed around the logo

x = height of tail

Logo Variations

Typography

The main logo is always to be used in capital letters. The signature or any secondary typography can be either all caps or caps and lowercase.

When using Garamond do not use all caps for the signature.

Unapproved Uses

To preserve the integrity of the FAO brand, use the brandmark correctly and consistently with any application. Altering, distorting or redrawing the mark in any way may weaken the overall brand image.

1. Rotate brandmark or wordmark
2. Alter the angle
3. Add text or graphics
4. Use the wordmark or brandmark alone aside from in pattern
5. Crop the brandmark
6. Outline the brandmark
7. Use brandmark next to wordmark
8. Use any color other than the brand colors
9. Flip brandmark
